

QVS: Putting Faith into Action

Ross Hennesy, Assistant Director of Quaker Voluntary Service (QVS), will be at Berkeley Friends Church to share about this project on Sunday, November 6, at 2 PM. QVS, a year-long program for young adults, is an experiment at the intersection of transformational spirituality and activism. Now in its fifth year, QVS combines intentional community, prophetic service, spiritual formation, and voluntary simplicity. It offers young adult Quakers and seekers an opportunity to tap into the long tradition of Friends service as a testimony of Spirit-led lives.

With houses of service in Atlanta, Philadelphia, Portland, OR, and Boston, and with plans to expand in 2018, QVS works across the branches of Quakerism to make this opportunity available to a diverse group of young adults. Come hear how you can get involved and potentially support this work in the Bay Area!
