The Spirit-filled movement of early Quakerism demonstrates how a community collectively surrendering to the inward Light of Christ can actively participate in the divine transformation of human society, making divine Love and Truth more tangible and visible... ten elements of the spiritual journey experienced by the first Quakers and by Friends in our time... [can be] grouped into three sections: Awakening, Convincement, and Faithfulness.

Please join Marcelle Martin for Quaker Heritage Day 2017 to explore these dimensions of the journey, and to consider how we are living them today!

Marcelle Martin is the author of Our Life is Love (Inner Light Books, 2016). She was the Mullen Writing Fellow at Earlham School of Religion while working on this book. Earlier, she participated in the Fairhill Friends Ministry in Philadelphia's inner city, and for four years served as the resident Quaker Studies Teacher at Pendle Hill. Since 1997 she has traveled across the country to lead workshops and retreats related to prayer, discernment, spiritual experience, early Quakers, faithfulness, and ministry. A member of Swarthmore Meeting, she lives in Chester, PA with her husband, Terry.

Marcelle will also join us for Sunday School at 10:00 a.m. and for the 11:00 a.m. worship service on Sunday, February 19. Plan to make the most of this full weekend of offerings!
