Way of the Spirit

CONTEMPLATIVE STUDY IN COMMUNITY

Have you heard about Way of the Spirit?

Way of the Spirit is a Quaker study-retreat program for the West Coast. It provides a time and place apart to deepen faithfulness and explore leadings in life-changing community. The program empowers and strengthens Spirit-led service or ministry.

The program features:

- A series of multi-night residential retreats over the course of a year, with an optional second year.
- Committed study, spiritual practice, and supportive community.
- Small group size: yearlong program maximum 12 participants.
- Expert guest presenters available for meaningful dialogue.
- An experiential approach to spiritual growth in the manner of Friends which integrates intellectual content with spiritual discipline, prayerful dialogue and shared worship.
- Between modules, private online reflection group, personal spiritual experiments, and accompaniment sessions.
- Welcoming those who feel aligned with this vision from diverse faith communities, including Evangelical and Unprogrammed Quakers

Four years strong now, Way of the Spirit draws participants from Washington, Oregon, Alaska, California and the Southwest. More details are available at: <http://goodnewsassoc.org/spirit>.
