Obituary

Peter Christian Brewer, age 69, passed away Saturday 2/19/2022 from an unexpected heart attack. He was known for his boundless good humor, friendliness and dedication to public service. Peter was born in Algona, IA, graduated from Redondo Beach High in CA, earned an English Degree from CSU Long Beach, and a teaching credential from SFSU.

He taught English at Castro Valley High School and coached cross country and track and field there for over 25 years. After retiring from teaching, he continued coaching at Northgate and Alhambra

High Schools. He substantially contributed to the cross country and track and field community at the local and state level with his years of coaching, updating policies in the sports, and being a part of countless student athlete lives. Peter enjoyed being with and talking to people. He had the gift of gab and could make a friend anywhere.

He is survived by his wife ("the goddess") Faith and his three loving children and spouses, Peter Jr. & Alicia, Robert & Sarah, and Christian & Erna. Peter is also survived by siblings Elisabeth Amstutz, Barbara Gejer, Robert Brewer, Daniel Brewer, and Rex Brewer.

He was much loved & will be terribly missed.

There will be a gathering in person to remember Peter at the Castro Valley Relay Invitational on March 26, 2022. For more information please contact Peter Jr at pgbrewer55@gmail.com.
